++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Overnight thundery rain affecting southern areas. Thursday colder with sunshine.

This Evening and Tonight:
Scattered heavy showers at first, then persistent, thundery rain will move eastwards to mainly affect southern areas around midnight, before clearing in the early hours. Some showers following across most parts later in the night. Windy later, with possible gales. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Thursday:
Early showery rain clearing, then colder and breezier with plenty of sunshine. Scattered showers most likely in the afternoon, with coastal gales for a time. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Bright and breezy at first Friday, with scattered showers, easing later. Saturday, dry, bright, but increasingly breezy, with milder temperatures. Sunday cloudier with rain or showers likely, perhaps brighter later.
